2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.	Nazareth college of Arts and Science is affiliated to the University of Madras and curriculum is designed by the Board of Studies. The college caters to the needs of young minds in their formative years of learning and career building by innovating the prescribed syllabus of UNOM. Within these established academic structures to the holistic development of the students, the academic processes are streamlined, with timetable workloads well in advance of the academic year. A well structured academic calendar that includes both curriculum and co curricular activities ensures effective curriculum delivery. The Academic Calendar is prepared by the Dean of Academics, Head of the Departments, keeping in mind the schedule of the University of Madras. The college invites industry experts, eminent academicians and practitioners for guest lectures based on recent trends related to the curriculum to bridge the gap between institution and industry. Information and communication technologies (ICT) are used for the smart delivery of curriculum. Faculties are trained through FDP, online workshops to enhance their teaching pedagogy. The college adapted both online and offline teaching. All the teaching faculties were trained in different LMS like google classroom, MYOS and multiple web conferencing tools like google meet, zoom for effective delivery of curriculum. The syllabus was broken into monthly / weekly classes and the staff members are advised to follow both synchronous and asynchronous method of teaching.
