NSS, YRC, and RRC Wings of Nazareth College

The NSS, YRC, and RRC wings of Nazareth College conducted a impactful awareness programme on "Head Injury" at Thirumullaivoyal Bus Stop. The event aimed to educate the public on road safety practices, particularly emphasizing the importance of wearing helmets while riding.

Students creatively used mime performances to vividly demonstrate the critical importance of wearing helmets. This approach effectively captured bystanders' attention and conveyed the message of head injury prevention in a memorable way. To engage the public further, club members interacted with onlookers, posing questions related to road safety. Participants who answered correctly were rewarded with tokens of appreciation, fostering a participatory and educational environment.

The programme received positive feedback from the public at Thirumullaivoyal Bus Stop, who appreciated the informative and interactive nature of the event. Many bystanders actively participated in discussions and expressed interest in adopting safer practices on the road. A total of 40 students, alongside dedicated coordinators from NSS, YRC, and RRC wings of Nazareth College, enthusiastically contributed to organizing and executing the programme.

Conclusion:

The "Head Injury Awareness Programme" organized by NSS, YRC, and RRC wings of Nazareth College effectively raised awareness about the risks associated with head injuries and promoted helmet usage as a preventive measure.

Future Initiatives:

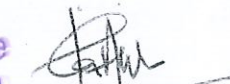

Nazareth College is committed to continuing its efforts in promoting road safety awareness through similar initiatives and collaborative activities. By empowering students and engaging the public, the college aims to contribute positively to community health and safety.

Event Report: Great Souls Day Celebration "Anbai Pagirvom"

Date: August 25, 2018

Organized by: Rotaract Club of Nazareth College of Arts and Science

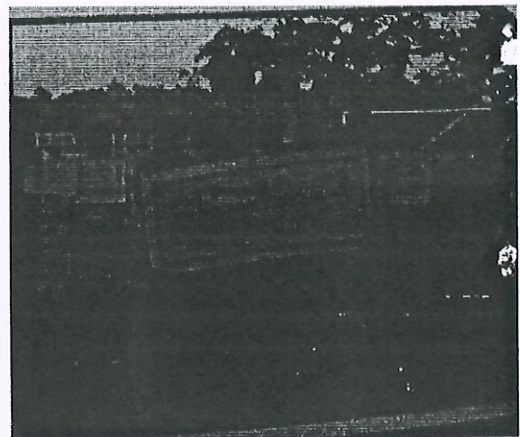

The Rotaract Club of Nazareth College of Arts and Science organized the "Great Souls Day" celebration on August 25, 2018, in honour of a revered leader's birth anniversary and to raise AIDS awareness. Approximately 35 students and 1 staff member coordinated and participated in this event, which aimed to educate, inspire, and promote social responsibility.

The event commenced with a solemn opening ceremony paying tribute to the great leader, followed by an impactful awareness program on AIDS. Sessions included expert talks and interactive discussions focusing on prevention, treatment, and stigma reduction.

Central to the program was the launch of "Anbai Pagirvom," an initiative urging participants to engage in community service and contribute positively to society. Cultural performances, including dance and music, highlighted themes of unity and social responsibility.

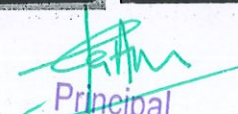

A panel discussion engaged students and staff in exploring the leader's legacy and contemporary issues in leadership and social change. The event concluded with participants expressing gratitude for its enriching experience.

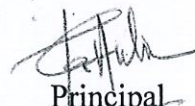

The success of the "Great Souls Day" celebration was attributed to the dedication of the organizing committee, volunteers, participants, and faculty advisors from Nazareth College of Arts and Science. The Rotaract Club extends its sincere appreciation to all involved.
