MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

1. Preamble:

About College

Nazareth College of Arts and Science, established in the year 2000, by C & D Educational Trust. It is affiliated to the University of Madras and accredited with 'B' Grade by National Accreditation body of the UGC. The College is recognized under 2f of the UGC Act. The institution offers non-conventional job-oriented courses. Nazareth College aims at the holistic development of the students and provides opportunities to gain greater and deeper academic knowledge to harness their personality. They experience the value of education and find their purpose of existence. The various value-added courses such as English Enhancement Course, Destination Excellence Programme, Internship

Nazareth College of Arts & Science

Programme and Industry Preparatory Programmes help them to prepare themselves for nation building. The college has international collaborations with University of Bengkulu – Indonesia, Coburg University of Applied Science and Arts, Germany, KDU University – Malaysia, to co-operate in academic exchange and promote academic research. The college has signed Memorandum of Understanding with National and State level organisation like Mafai Foundation, National Institute of Technology and Finmark. The strong commitment of the management, the continuous support of the alumni, and the trust and belief of the parents make Nazareth as one of its kind that offers the best educational practices to create better citizens.

About WEI

Women Entrepreneurs India offers support to women looking forward to start a business with ideas that coincide with their abilities, interests and skills. Started in the year 2013 by Mahalakshmi Saravanan, WEI strives to educate, train, support and motivate women entrepreneurs all over India, through innovative business ideas, startup funding avenues, marketing support and mentor connects. Today, Women Entrepreneurs India has become the best ecosystem for women in business with our pan India network of women in business.

Women Entrepreneurs India is the only internationally recognized social enterprise from India featured in the 2019 Asia Pacific journal, an initiative of the Cabinet Office of Japan.

Women Entrepreneurs India also provides optimum awareness on the existing funding avenues that could scale up their business. Startup funding support from WEI gives women a helping hand in establishing a business that could sustain market pressures and competition. This support system is also extended towards women entrepreneurs who are planning to upscale their existing business. With a national presence, WEI plans to support the ventures and ideas of women from the urban and rural sections with equal vigor. Women Entrepreneurs India has a well-rooted institutional capacity and alliances with able mentors, trainers and marketing professionals, to support women in all avenues of their entrepreneurial dreams.

2. Purpose

The purpose of the Memorandum of Understanding is to ensure co-operation between Nazareth College of Arts and Science and WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS INDIA to educate and empower Graduate and Post Graduate students by way of awareness programs, expert lectures, seminars, workshops, training sessions, internships, organization visits, Consultation or Project etc.

About WEI

Women Entrepreneurs India offers support to women looking forward to start a business with ideas that coincide with their abilities, interests and skills. Started in the year 2013 by Mahalakshmi Saravanan, WEI strives to educate, train, support and motivate women entrepreneurs all over India, through innovative business ideas, startup funding avenues, marketing support and mentor connects. Today, Women Entrepreneurs India has become the best ecosystem for women in business with our pan India network of women in business.

Women Entrepreneurs India is the only internationally recognized social enterprise from India featured in the 2019 Asia Pacific journal, an initiative of the Cabinet Office of Japan.

Women Entrepreneurs India also provides optimum awareness on the existing funding avenues that could scale up their business. Startup funding support from WEI gives women a helping hand in establishing a business that could sustain market pressures and competition. This support system is also extended towards women entrepreneurs who are planning to upscale their existing business. With a national presence, WEI plans to support the ventures and ideas of women from the urban and rural sections with equal vigor. Women Entrepreneurs India has a well-rooted institutional capacity and alliances with able mentors, trainers and marketing professionals, to support women in all avenues of their entrepreneurial dreams.
