Sports Endowment Scholarship:

The Sports Endowment Scholarship is awarded to students who demonstrate exceptional skills in sports. The scholarship is determined based on the level of achievement, ranging from District to State, National, and even international competitions. The scholarship amount can vary from 50% to 100% of the total fees. This scholarship is applicable for all semesters, and the amount awarded will be based on the student's performance throughout their academic journey.

Single Parent Scholarship

The scholarship for single parents is awarded to students who have lost their father, the primary breadwinner of the family. These students will receive a 50% fee reduction in their first semester.

Founders Endowment Scholarship

The Founders Endowment Scholarship is available for students facing financial hardships. The scholarship eligibility is determined by the management, considering the family background, and may be subject to change each semester.

Refugee Scholarship

The refugee scholarship program aims to provide educational opportunities to individuals who have been displaced from their home countries due to conflict, persecution, or other humanitarian crises. Education is a powerful tool for empowerment and rebuilding lives, and this program seeks to support refugees in accessing higher education as a means of fostering their personal growth and contributing to their communities and beyond.
