Title: Report on "Career Counselling Activities: Careers in NGOs"

Nazareth College of Arts and Science organized career counselling activities focusing on "Careers in NGOs" during the academic year 2018-2019. The primary objective was to provide guidance and support to students interested in pursuing a career in non-governmental organizations (NGOs). This report summarizes the outcomes of these activities.

Activities and Participation: The career counselling activities included workshops, seminars, one-on-one counselling sessions, and networking opportunities with professionals working in NGOs. The sessions aimed to educate students about the various career paths within NGOs, skills required, job opportunities, and the impact of NGO work on society.

Fifteen students actively participated in the competitive examination conducted as part of the counselling activities. Additionally, three students benefitted from personalized career counselling sessions, which provided them with tailored guidance and advice based on their interests and aspirations.

Outcome: The career counselling activities yielded positive outcomes for the students:

1. Competitive Examination:

- Fifteen students benefitted from the competitive examination, which likely enhanced their knowledge and understanding of the NGO sector.

2. Career Counselling:

- Three students received individualized career counselling, which helped them gain clarity about their career goals and the steps needed to achieve them.

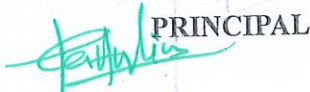

3. Placements:

- Three students successfully secured placements in NGOs, showcasing the practical impact of the counselling activities in facilitating employment opportunities within the sector.

The career counselling activities focusing on "Careers in NGOs" organized by Nazareth College of Arts and Science contributed significantly to the professional development and career prospects of the students. By providing valuable insights, guidance, and opportunities, the college empowered students to explore and pursue rewarding careers in the NGO sector, ultimately contributing to their personal growth and societal welfare.

This report highlights the importance of such initiatives in bridging the gap between academic learning and real-world employment opportunities, thereby fostering a skilled workforce committed to social change and community development.
