MALPRACTICE

Students indulging in malpractice during Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) will be awarded zero marks and the same will be considered in consolidating the CIA marks. Repeated offence will entail zero marks in the consolidated CIA for all the papers of the Semester. Such students will be permitted to repeat their Continuous Assessment tests only after the completion of six semesters (UG)/four semesters (PG). They may however continue to attend classes for the rest of the program and appear for the End Semester Examination.

All instances of malpractices will be communicated to the Examinations office, with a written statement from the course teacher and the student along with proof if any.

If malpractice is detected during the End Semester Examinations the student will be debarred from writing all the following examinations of that Semester, and the preceding papers of that Semester stand cancelled. The repeat papers that she has registered for during that Semester will also be cancelled. All papers regular/ repeat of that semester will be cancelled.
