FINAL MENTORING REPORT

Harshini, a final year BEE computer science student, has a unique profile as both a sport enthusiast and an aspiring software developer. As a passionate handball player, aiming to become an international athlete, Harshini is concurrently pursuing a career in software development. Her academic goal include clearing all papers without any arrears and securing a placement with a good salary.

Academic performance

Harshini's commitment to her studies is evident, considering her involvement in sports. To excel Academically, she can adopt effective time management strategies and balance her dual interests by optimizing her study routine.

Sports career Aspirations

Aspiring to become an international handball player is an ambitious goal. Encouraging Harshini to manage her sports training along side her studies and connecting her with mentors in the sports domain can enhance her athletic pursuits.

-14-

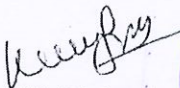

Career goals

Harshini's desire to be a software developer is commendable. Focusing on acquiring relevant skills, participating in coding projects and networking with professionals in the software industry will contribute to her success in this field.

Paper clearance and placement

Clearing all papers without arrears is crucial for a successful academic journey. Additionally, preparing for placement reviews, interviews, polishing her resume and showcasing her dual skills (sports and software development) will enhance her prospects of securing a job with good salary. Harshini's dual aspirations in sports and software development present an exciting journey ahead.
